Council report for December and January:

At the last two meetings, besides completing the regular business that was on the agenda, council spent considerable time in discussion. At the December meeting the elders and deacons thought about and answered questions like: Why do we do what we do? What do we do well and what needs improvement? Looking forward, what should our priorities be? How do we attract others to join our congregation and worship with us? Are the pastors, deacons and elders ministering faithfully and effectively? Thinking about these questions will prepare the council members to share with the church visitors when they attend the council meeting on February 11. At the January meeting, council members and the pastors discussed the topic "Welcoming children to the Lord's Table". Discussing this topic does not mean that council is promoting that children be invited to partake of the Lord's Supper. Rather, it is important for the elders and deacons to know and understand why Synod decided in 2011 to allow this practice, why some churches have allowed and promoted it and why other churches in the CRC have not. Council members discussed questions like: What does membership in Williamsburg CRC signify? Why is participation in the Lord's Supper tied to membership? Do we exclude some people by not allowing them to participate? At what age are children or young people able to understand the significance of partaking in the Lord's Supper? Council members have been asked to read about and talk about this topic and it will be addressed again at the March council meeting. Please pray for wisdom for the pastors, deacons and elders as they strive to serve God and lead His church here in Williamsburg.

Church Visitors: Church visitors meet with councils of churches as fellow office-bearers who are appointed by the local classis to learn about the spiritual health of the congregation, to discuss areas of ministry where the church is experiencing the Lord's blessing and where the church is struggling, and to ascertain whether the council, the pastors, the elders and the deacons are ministering properly and faithfully. Pastor Jack Van de Hoef from Brockville CRC and an elder from Brockville CRC will be attending our council meeting on February 11. If you have a concern which you wish to share with the church visitors, please contact the clerk by Feb. 2. Please pray that this visit will benefit our congregation and the furtherance of God's kingdom.
