Church Visitors: Church visitors meet with councils of churches as fellow office-bearers who are appointed by the local classis to learn about the spiritual health of the congregation, to discuss areas of ministry where the church is experiencing the Lord's blessing and where the church is struggling, and to ascertain whether the council, the pastors, the elders and the deacons are ministering properly and faithfully. Pastor Jack Van de Hoef from Brockville CRC and an elder from Brockville CRC will be attending our council meeting on February 11.
