Thank - You

It was just over a week ago mom told us that she would like to write the 'thank you' note, to be placed in the church bulletin, from the family. For all the prayers you raised, cards and visit, you did for dad, and her, over the years, and especially these last few days. Mom's heart was full of gratitude of what she wanted to say. She did not want to rush through it, and told us that "It didn't have to be done today". She would get to it another day. That was Friday..... Now, we are the ones filling in those words. So many hugged us and said, "I have no words", and that is how we feel. How do we begin to say thank you... You were there for Mom and Dad through the countless prayers, and cards, visits and emails. Mom and Dad were Thankful for all the goodness of what God provided, through you. And they were Humbled to be receiving so much. The words 'Thank you' can never express the depth of appreciation we hold for you all.

As our parents would want us to say, "count your blessings, name them one by one." You truly are one of them!

The Children and Grand+Great Grandchildren of Arie and Janny Geurkink

Church Visitors: Church visitors meet with councils of churches as fellow office-bearers who are appointed by the local classis to learn about the spiritual health of the congregation, to discuss areas of ministry where the church is experiencing the Lord's blessing and where the church is struggling, and to ascertain whether the council, the pastors, the elders and the deacons are ministering properly and faithfully. Pastor Jack Van de Hoef from Brockville CRC and an elder from Brockville CRC will be attending our council meeting on February 11. Please pray that this visit will benefit our congregation and the furtherance of God's kingdom.

"A thankful heart is one of the primary identifying characteristics of a believer. It stands in stark contrast to pride, selfishness, and worry. And it helps fortify the believer's trust in the Lord and reliance of His provision, even in the toughest times. No matter how choppy the seas become, a believer's heart is buoyed by constant praise and gratefulness to the Lord."—John MacArthur
