SERMON NOTES

A covenant relationship with God is different from any other relationship because:

**Matthew 28:19-20 - Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely, I am with you always, to the very end of the age.*

WHO IS JESUS?

Lent is almost upon us and this season as we make our way towards Easter, we will ask one question, a question that has been asked for the ages. A question that many have sought to answer. A question that has brought both division and healing. And it is the most important question we could ever ask.

The question is: WHO IS JESUS?

The gospel of Mark knows that the key to answering this question lies in the cruciform shape of Jesus' life. All through the gospel of Mark people wonder who Jesus is. A few people hit on the right answer but are repeatedly told to keep it quiet. Only when Jesus dies on the cross is someone allowed to say publicly, "Surely, this was the Son of God!" Once Jesus has given the last full measure of his life, it's safe to identify him. Even so, Mark includes clues to the identity of Jesus throughout the gospel.

Throughout this season, we will use the Gospel of Mark to help us see who Jesus is and how knowing his true identity shapes and influences our Christian living every single day.
