

December 2016 Council Notes

- The minutes of the congregational meeting in November were reviewed and tentatively accepted at council. These minutes will be distributed in advance of the next congregational meeting where they will be presented for final approval.
- Council heard the proposal of the ad-hoc committee responsible for outlining the format of a new interactive learning time in place of the second service. Council approved the proposal. The bulletin will be outlining much more about this proposal (The Bible Project) related to reading through the Bible in a year.
- Council approved the request of Elizabeth McInnes to perform Profession of Faith.
- Just for information: the Groeneveld's will be taking off the week between Christmas and New Year's as holidays.
